Politics In the California State Legislature, Rivera is in 32nd 32nd place. Represented by Democrat Bob Archuleta, and in the 58th congressional election, he was 15. Rivera is at 38. [16] [24] The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department (LASD) operates rivera station in Rivera. [25] The Los Angeles County Department of Health Services operates Whittier Health Center in Whittier, serving Rivera. [26] Since January 2018, the city council has been made up of Mayor Gustavo V. Camacho, Mayor Pro Tem Brent A. Tercero, council members Bob J. Archuleta, David Armenta and Gregory Salcido. [27] Although individual titles were traded for its members, the composition of the council was unchanged from June 2014, when it consisted of Mayor Brent Tercero, Mayor Pro Tem Gregory Salcido and Council members Bob Archuleta, David Armenta and Gustavo Camacho. The city has a council/city manager form of government. The title of mayor is a ceremonial position that changes every year within the council. [28] Rivera Profile: Vol. 41, No.2 (Updated City Council) Business Historic Site It was a 157-acre (0.64 km2) production facility located on the corner of Rosemead and Washington boulevards, which was owned and operated by a Ford Motor Company called the Los Angeles Assembly. The factory opened in 1958 and closed in 1980 and was bought by Northrop Grumman in 1982 [29] After the unveiling of the B-2 Spirit bomber in 1988. In the early 1990s, the division was renamed the B-2 Division to reflect its most famous product. At its peak, the project employed about 13,000 workers in Rivera. [30] The site was closed and then demolished in 2001. The redevelopment there has been a significant revamp in the city: the opening of the Rivera Towne Center, a 60-acre open-air shopping complex along Washington Boulevard, that has brought such well-known businesses as Starbucks, Petsmart, Lowe's, Walmart, Walgreens, Del Taco and other businesses to the city. [31] Crossing is a 2.79 hectare shopping mall with retailers that include rite-aid pharmacy, Starbucks and subway. Significant renovations have occurred in recent [when?] years along historic Whittier Boulevard, bringing in such companies as Target and Panda Express. [31] Multiple developments include Rivera Village Walk, a $22 million, 12-acre shopping mall located on the southwest corner of Whittier and Paramount Boulevards. Tenants: CVS Pharmacy, Cinepolis USA Theaters, is located on the corner of Paramount and Whittier Boulevards. [31] Landlords LA Fitness, which is part of the 8.10-acre Rivera Market Place Shopping Center with sexy nails, Wing Stop, Bank, Juice It Up and other businesses are open on the corner of Washington and Rosemead Boulevards. [31] Taxes in cities rose from 10.25% to 10.75% in mid-2009. The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department is ensuring law enforcement. [10] Education City serves El Rancho and Montebello Unified School Districts (K-12) with nearby university and university systems in Los Angeles and Orange counties that provide higher education. Most students attend schools in the El Rancho Unified School District. Those staying in the Montebello Gardens area are located in the Montebello Unified School District. The Armenian Mesrobian School, an Armenian private K-12 school, is also located in rivera. Transportation One of the main attractions of Rivera for residents and businesses is its central location. It is very accessible across several highways, San Gabriel (605), Santa Ana (5) and Pomona (60). Public transport is provided by the Metropolitan Transit Authority (MTA) and montebello bus lines. The MTA website also offers bus and train tickets. Information on the schedule of Montebello bus lines is available at City Hall or on a hyperlink. Dial-a-Ride is available to elderly people (over 55) and people with disabilities. [35] Rivera's main arterial roads run from south to north include Rosemead Boulevard, Paramount Boulevard (not connected to Montebello's Paramount Boulevard) and Passons Boulevard. Major arterial roads running from west to east include Whittier Boulevard, Slauson Avenue, Washington Boulevard, Beverly Boulevard and Telegraph Road. Mines Boulevard and San Gabriel River Parkway are other important arteries. Highway 605 runs through the northern city limits along the Rivera Sports Arena. Also, two Rivera roads were signed as California State Highways, though Caltrans surrendered maintenance of both highways within the city limits for the city. [36] The two highways located in the Rivera are the State of California 19 (Rosemead Boulevard) and California State Route 72 (Whittier Boulevard), but only a fraction from Interstate 605 to Rosemead Boulevard was signed as State Route 72, while all of Rosemead Boulevard in the Rivera was signed as State Route 19. Famous people Actress Lupe Ontiveros was a longtime resident of Rivera. Singer Jeanette Jurado, a member of exposé, is a native of Rivera who lived in Rivera until high school. Baseball player Randy Flores is the U.S. director of scouting for the St. Louis Cardinals of Major League Baseball (MLB), a sports commentator, entrepreneur, coach and former professional baseball relief pitcher. Flores attended El Rancho High School and the University of Southern California. Footballer and two-time MLS Cup champion Cristian Roldan is the current Seattle Sounders player from Major League Soccer. Roldan graduated from El Rancho High School in 2013 and attended the University of Washington. [38] Controversial Councilman Gregory Salcido[39] James C. Shugg built the first school, the Rivera School, in 1868.
